INTRODUCTION TO MY SOFT SKILLS CV

My Praice Soft Skills CV is automatically created based on my own assessment and input from my network. It describes my behavioural type, my strongest Soft Skills (behavioural traits) and how I use these to add value as a colleague.

A Praice Soft Skill profile consists of 6 behavioural types, each illustrated with its own colour, and 36 underlying Soft Skills. Most people have a dominating behavioural type but have behavioural traits from several types. If you are curious to learn more about Praice go to www.praice.com

HOW I ADD VALUE

As a colleague, I am generally optimistic and I believe that everybody has a lot of skills which a strong leader will coordinate for the sake of a common goal.

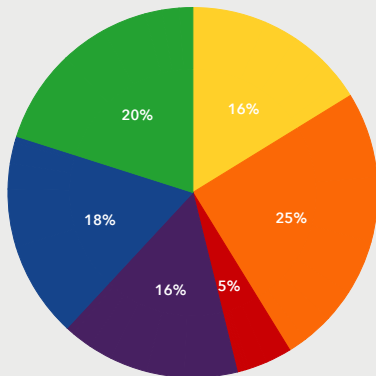

As a colleague, I am also very focused on my work boundaries: I am willing to go a very long way to stick to this framework and ensure a consistent work process.

HOW I AM MOTIVATED

I am significantly the orange colour; therefore, I mainly focus on developing the people that I surround myself with, meaning that I am motivated by creating excitement wherever I go. For my optimistic brain to work most efficiently, I must be working with people who can and want to develop.

ORANGE - INCLUSIVE

As an orange person, I am happy to take on the leading role. I show an interest in other people and am generally good at recognising others.

GREEN - REALISING

As a green person, I am good at working step by step and organised. I have a good overview and the ability to work in an organised and practical way.

BLUE - EVALUATIVE

As a blue person, I am good at valuating pros and cons. I show a stable ability to analyse and evaluate the value of a product.

MY TYPE COMBINATIONS

ORANGE + GREEN

I need to know the overall work guidelines because even though I am not afraid to change direction, I want to know the purpose of doing so.

ORANGE + BLUE

I am happy to play a central role because I am good at talking to people, and at the same time I have the ability to assess the value of the proposals.

GREEN + BLUE

I assume responsibility in order to reach the goal, and I am happy to organise the entire process to ensure that everything works as smoothly as possible

MY 4 STRONGEST SOFT SKILLS

RESOLUTE

I am good at sticking to agreements. In my work, this means that my actions are usually reliable. The consistency that I am known for means that people entrust me with tasks that are important or require consistent execution to add value.

APPROACHABLE

I am good at showing a genuine interest in others. In my work, this means that I can easily communicate with others and I show a natural empathy to other people. I focus on understanding the thoughts of the person in front of me.

SYSTEMATIC

I am good at creating and acting according to a specific system. In my work, this means that I am good at prioritising and organising my task approach. This makes me more efficient, especially with regard to gaining an overview of large amounts of information.

ENERGETIC

I am good at working at a high pace. In my work, this means that I keep a fast pace. I also possess an inner drive that prevents me from standing still for too long at a time. The result is that I am not scared of initiating new processes and I enjoy juggling many tasks at the same time.
